Firstly, a word from our President, Editor and Club Plate Officer

Hello All

As you may gather by the heading above and a quick glance on page 2 of this newsletter, a few things have changed with the executive team having a bit of a shuffle about as a result of our recent AGM.

I would like to give thanks to our Past President, David Elsom, for manning the helm over the last two years, through the Covid 19 crisis, and also for the many past years he has served our club leading us his excellent dedication to the task.

I would like to thank everyone who has taken upon themselves to serve yet another year in the executive and committee positions of the club, vital jobs that have to be filled or our club wouldn't function or exit for that matter.

A new face to the executive and someone that probably needs no introduction but I will introduce him anyway, is our new Vice President, Hans Kamphuis. Now, Hans would have to be one of the most jovial, approachable blokes I have had the joy to encounter and in the company of his good lady wife, Lorraine, both of them have become firm friends in our club and stalwarts of any club activity. I'm sure all members would join me in welcoming Hans to his new position and provide him with all help and assistance he may require during his term of tenure.

Now that I have sung Hans' praises so high and so early in the piece, I now intend to put his principals immediately to the test and announce he will be the "Head Honcho" for our coming meeting to be held at 11am, 20th March at the Colac Otway Caravan and Cabin Park.

Now, like all are meetings, everyone is welcome to attend and it would be great to see some of our south/western counterparts at Colac. If you can't be there for the whole weekend, why not just make a day trip out of it?, make some contacts, show your face and put faces to the names you see in the newsletter or on Facebook.

If you can't make Colac, here's some advance details of our May 2022 proposed meeting as shown below.

Will you be there or not?

Yours in Scouting
President David P

Scout Nationals 2023

To be hosted by the International Scout Owners Club Of Queensland (Australia)

For those members who attended this year's Nationals in South Australia, they will remember that it was suggested that the Queensland chapter of the International Scout Owners Club be given the opportunity to host the 2023 Nationals.

I don't have any updates as yet as to news of the Nationals but to be fair S/E QLD and Northern NSW have their hand tied up with floods and natural disasters presently.

Many of us who went to Casino and Evans Head will be shocked to see such high water around places we toured.

Of course our thoughts turn to those souls who are caught up in the crisis.

I expect it will be all dried out by September 2023..... We Hope.
